HDFC ERGO GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED
CODE OF PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES FOR FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

[In terms of regulation 8 of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015]

I. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this Code of Practice and Procedures for fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (the Code) is to clearly outline procedures and practical guidelines that would be followed by HDFC ERGO General Insurance Company Limited (the Company) for the consistent, transparent, regular and timely public disclosure and dissemination of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).

The Company is committed to factual, timely and accurate disclosure based on applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

II. APPLICABILITY

This Code shall be applicable and binding on all the employees, officers, directors and those persons authorised to speak on behalf of the Company. The Code shall be effective from the date of approval of the Board or Directors.

III. INFORMATION COVERED BY THIS CODE:

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) shall mean any information, relating to the Company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available, and which upon becoming generally available is likely to materially affect the price of the NCDs of the Company and shall generally include but not be limited to information relating to the following:

- (a) Financial results;
- (b) Dividends;
- (c) Changes in capital structure;
- (d) mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- (e) Changes in key managerial personnel;
- (f) Any material event/information which would impact the Company's ability to pay interest on /redeem NCDs.

Material Information means any information relating to the business or affairs of the Company that results in, or would reasonably be expected to result in a significant change in the market price or value of the securities of the Company or that would reasonably be expected to have a significant influence on any reasonable investor's investment decision.

IV. CHIEF INVESTOR RELATIONS OFFICER

The Company would designate one of its senior officer as the Chief Investor Relations Officer from time to time, who shall be responsible to deal with the dissemination of information and disclosure of any Material Information.

Presently, the Chief Investor Relations Officer of the Company is Mr. Dayananda V. Shetty, Company Secretary and Chief Compliance Officer.

Employees must not respond under any circumstances to inquiries from the stock exchanges, the media or others, unless authorised to do so by the Managing Director of the Company.

V. BASIC PRINCIPLES OF DISCLOSURES

Material Information shall be disclosed in accordance with the following principles:

- (i) Information should be disclosed immediately through the stock exchanges
- (ii) No selective disclosure. Previously undisclosed UPSI must not be disclosed to selected individuals. If previously undisclosed information is inadvertently disclosed to any other person, such information must then be disclosed to the stock exchanges immediately.
- (iii) Under certain circumstances, the Company may determine that such disclosure would be unduly detrimental to the Company (e.g. if release of the information would cause prejudice to the negotiations in a corporate transaction), in which case, the information shall be kept confidential until the Company determines it may be publicly disclosed. Information should be disclosed only once there is credibility to the information and the information has concretized.
- (iv) Disclosure should be made in a timely manner.
- (v) Disclosure must be complete in all material respects and should not be misleading
- (vi) Unfavorable Material Information must be disclosed as promptly and completely as favorable information
- (vii) Disclosure must be corrected immediately if the Company is subsequently made aware that its earlier disclosure contained a material error or omission at the time it was given.

VI. DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL INFORMATION

The Company shall disclose Material Information concerning its business and affairs to the public immediately, except when otherwise required for the purpose of maintaining the confidentiality of the information. This Code is to enable all persons investing in the NCDs of the Company to have the opportunity for equal and timely access to information that may affect their investment decisions regarding those NCDs.

This Code further provides that, once there is credibility to the information and once the information has been set out in stone to a level of concentration, the information would be disclosed by the Company in a timely manner.

VII. PROCESS OF DISCLOSURES OF MATERIAL INFORMATION

In case any Functional/ Business Head becomes aware of some Material Information about the Company, the concerned Functional/ Business Head would contact the Managing Director & CEO of the Company. The Managing Director & CEO in consultation with the Company Secretary would then determine whether the information requires disclosure to the stock exchanges or not in accordance with the Listing Regulations.

Thereafter, the Company Secretary with the help of the concerned functional/Business Head will prepare the content of the disclosure and determine the timing of the disclosures. Thereafter, the Company Secretary will disclose the said information to the stock exchanges.

VIII. DELAY IN DISCLOSING MATERIAL INFORMATION

Under certain circumstances, the Company may keep Material Information confidential for a limited period of time because immediate disclosure may compromise certain strategic business opportunities of the Company or may not be disclosable due to third-party confidentiality restrictions or uncertainty of events.

The determination of when to not disclose Material Information immediately shall be made by the Managing Director & CEO of the Company.

IX. INFORMATION TO BE SHARED ON A NEED TO KNOW BASIS

The directors/employees of the Company shall not discuss the matters or developments regarding the Company which in any way relate to Material Information with any other persons, except that are required to be disclosed in performance of his/her duties or under applicable laws or regulations or in legal proceedings.

To protect Material Information from disclosure, the directors/employees of the Company:

- (i) Should not discuss Material Information in public places where Material information may be overheard (e.g. elevators, restaurants, airplanes, taxicabs) or participate in, host or link to Internet chat rooms, online social networking sites, newsgroup discussions or bulletin board which discuss matter pertaining to the Company's activities or its securities/NCDs;

- (ii) Should not carry, read or discard Material Information in an exposed manner in public places;
- (iii) Should not discuss Material Information with any other persons, except as required in performance of his or her duties;
- (iv) Shall advise the other persons with whom they are meeting where Material Information may be disclosed, before the meeting, that they must not divulge the Material Information; and
- (v) Should not deal in the securities/NCDs of the Company until the Material Information is publicly disclosed.

X. UNINTENTIONAL/INADVERTENTDISCLOSURE

In the event, the Company makes an unintentional disclosure of Material Information, it shall forthwith take steps to ensure that the same is disclosed to the stock exchanges immediately.

Further, if the Company becomes aware that there has been an inadvertent disclosure of Material Information, it should immediately contact the Company Secretary, who in consultation with the Managing Director& CEO, shall consider the matter and take appropriate steps.

XI. CONTACTS WITH FINANCIAL ANALYSTS, INVESTORS AND THEMEDIA

The Company communicates with its institutional shareholders through meetings with analysts and discussions between fund managers and management. The Company may also participate at investor conference from time to time. All interactions with institutional shareholders, fund managers and analysts shall be based on Generally Available Information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis. The presentations, if any, made to analysts and fund managers are placed on the Company's website.

The main channel of communication to the security-holders is through the annual report. Details relating to half yearly financial results and half yearly communications are disseminated to the security-holders through submissions to the stock exchanges and upload in the Company's website.

Meetings with investors (bilateral and general) are being held to ensure that the investment community receives a balanced and complete view of the Company's performance, while always observing applicable rules concerning selective disclosure, equal treatment of security-holders and insider trading. Individual meetings will also be held with the institutional shareholders, fund managers and analysts to share generally available information.

XII. MARKET RUMOURS

The Company shall not comment, affirmatively or negatively, on market rumours. Should a stock exchange request that the Company make a definitive statement in response to a market rumour that is causing significant volatility in the NCDs of the Company, the Company Secretary in consultation with the Managing Director shall consider the matter and content of the Company's response, such as confirming "no corporate development at this time"

XIII. REVIEW OF ANALYSTS REPORTS

The Company may at the request of the Analysts review their research reports for the limited purpose of pointing errors based on previously disclosed information.

XIV. MAINTENANCE OF DISCLOSURE RECORDS

The Company shall maintain and store records in respect of disclosures made by it through any means under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, rules made thereunder, IRDAI regulations, SEBI Act, 1992; rules, regulations and guidelines issued thereunder and the Listing Agreements, for audit and future reference.
